

3 Beautiful Coastal Inspired Mood Boards

How To Decorate Coastal Style

Do you love decorating coastal style? If so this post is for you! It's a favorite for many home owners because coastal design incorporates natural elements from scenic beaches and coastlines. Anyone can bring coastal design into their space just by using the right colors. First, You'll want to start with a perfect paint palette of blue and white to create an light, open and airy home design. Next, add natural elements such as seagrass, seashells, natural wood, jute, and rattan to complete your coastal decor.

Ready to see this look come to life and get some inspiration for your own home? Below I have created 3 beautiful coastal inspired mood boards to help you design a blissful and breezy getaway in your home. Coastal style is all about that feeling of peace and fun that you get from being near the water. Regardless of whether you live near the coast, your home is your sanctuary. So why not create your own cozy seaside inspired getaway?

Whether you choose to hire a team of interior designers or plan to DIY your own coastal style, a classic beachy living space is attainable. When I started renovating my new home, I would search for hours online looking for the perfect beach inspired home decor. I wanted to find beautiful, yet affordable items. Pinterest is a great website to start saving and planning ideas. Remember to save these pins to your boards!
